BEDROCK WINE CO. 2019 THE BEDROCK HERITAGE RED BEDROCK VINEYARD SONOMA VALLEY

Founded in 1854, Bedrock Vineyard has grown grapes for over 150 years. Following the first epidemic of phylloxera in the mid-1880's, the vineyard was replanted in 1888. It is from those 125 year old vines that the Bedrock Heritage Wine is crafted. Always the wine closest to my heart, the Bedrock Vineyard Heritage Wine comes my family's vineyard in the heart of Sonoma Valley. Composed of over 22 interplanted varieties, the Bedrock Vineyard Heritage Wine is the wine that I started the winery to make. The piece of rock strewn red clay soils produced a wine of citrus-tinged red fruits and spice. I hope this wine speaks as much to the vineyard as to the varieties from which it is composed- which of course is the point.

TASTING NOTES: The wine opens with fantastic perfume: ripe peach, sliced blueberries, warm red cherries, underbrush, violet and dried tangerine peel with nuances of crushed stone, dried hollyhock and exotic spices. Medium-bodied, it floods the mouth with singularly perfumed fruit layers, with a chewy frame and wicked freshness, finishing long and evolving.

Composition: A field blend of 27 varietals that is predominantly Zinfandel (approximately 40%)

Production: Approximately 5,000 cases

Regular Price: $49.99 CLUB CRUSH PRICE: $42.49
