

APERTURE 2022 CHENIN BLANC CLARKSBURG

TASTING NOTES:

Bursting with alluring scents of kumquat, kiwi, white peaches and gravel dust. It's a pretty expression with Goldilocks ripeness. The palate features a focused spine of acidity that drives its concentrated, expansive flavors, and it has a long finish that seems to gain in intensity with each sip.

WINERY INFO:

Never mind the six million album covers around the world that feature Andy Katz's photographs, or his dozen books of gorgeous photos that grace countless coffee tables around the country, or the many awards on his mantel earned from five decades of work around the world. It was all an excuse. An excuse to drink world class wine. To learn what it takes to make world class wine. And to spend time with his young son Jesse. Andy brought Jesse to the the most famous vineyards on earth, from the heart of Burgundy to the hills of Tuscany. He may not have admitted it at the time, but Andy's gambit worked. Barely a decade later, Jesse is now one of the most exciting — and accomplished — winemakers in the world, recently gracing the cover of Wine Enthusiast as a rising young star who is doing nothing less than "changing the way the world drinks." The son of a man who, through his photographs, changes the way the world sees wine. It's a perfect combination. Jesse supplies the grapes, Andy supplies the images. And together they make wines worthy of their travels. Aperture. World class wines. Katz and Katz. A world class pairing..

WINE STATS:

Blend: 100% Chenin Blanc

Alcohol: 13.1%

Production: 500 cases

Regular Price. . . $36.99 CLUB CRUSH PRICE. . . $33.29

BUSHONG 2022 'HOLOCENE' ROUSSANNE BIEN NACIDO VINEYARD SANTA MARIA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES:

This release beckons with a medley of honeysuckle, peony, and delicate white flowers, weaving a tapestry of floral allure. From its origin in the cool-climate vineyards of the central coast of California to its perch midway up the Santa Maria Valley, this wine whispers tales of Burgundian and Rhone heritage.

WINERY INFO:

Bushong Vintage Company is located in downtown Paso Robles. Laid back and unpretentious, they offer a casual lounge-like setting to relax and enjoy their extensive line up of eclectic wines. The Bushong line of wine is made by Jason Bushong. Due to working in several different AVAs (American Viticulture Area), Jason has a keen sense on how to produce elegant, balanced wines from the variety of soils available. The Bushong wines showcase Jason's winemaking style, under a family label with limited production.

WINE STATS:

Blend: 100% Roussanne

Alcohol: 14.5%

Production: 87 cases

Production: 680 cases

Regular Price. . . . $42.99 CLUB CRUSH PRICE. . . . $38.69
