LEITMOTIF 2018 CUVÉE AMILIANA SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

TASTING NOTES: This blend maintains freshness and mineral edge derived from the Grenache Blanc. Viognier, picked riper for developed flavor expression, provides aromatic complexity and an enhanced mouthfeel. From Martian Ranch, a biodynamically farmed vineyard in the cool Los Alamos Valley. This wine was allowed to ferment spontaneously, with native yeasts indigenous to the vineyard, further showcasing its regional character.

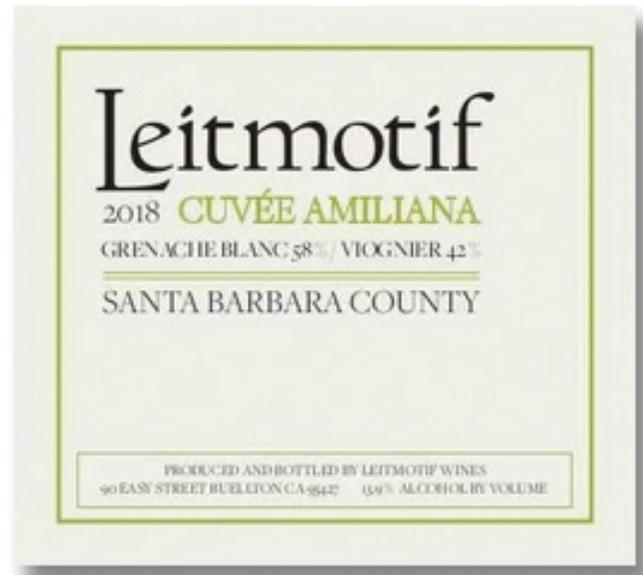

WINERY INFO: Leitmotif is winemaker Stephen Searle's label (he's head winemaker at Jaffurs), where he strives to make great wines through diligence in the vineyard, harvesting at optimal balance of ripeness and minimal handling in the cellar. Stephen's goal is to produce wines of both power and clarity, allowing the complexities of each vineyard and vintage to shine over the hand of the winemaker.

WINE STATS:

Blend: 58% Grenache Blanc, 42% Viognier

Alcohol 13.9%
