

HOOPES VINEYARD 2018 CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES:

This wine opens up with a gorgeous nose of black licorice and nutmeg; you might even get a hint of freshly split vanilla bean. With a great acidity and soft approach, this Cabernet Sauvignon takes you on a journey through dark fruits and earthy notes. Plum and fennel are persistent throughout, however as you continue you'll be able to pick up the flavors of roasted mushrooms, soy, and dried cherries.

STORMY WEATHER 2017 'NORTHERN GALE' CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES:

Deep garnet in color with heady cherry liqueur, cassis, blackberries, clove and sage on the nose. The mid-palate opens up to wild berries, minerals, chocolate orange, tobacco and hints of black olive that continue to the finish of impressively deep, luscious tannins that coat the palate and linger there for an impressively long time.

WINERY INFO:

A love of Napa Valley Cabernet led Cameron Woodbridge to join his brother Jayson, Founder and Winemaker of super-luxury Napa Cabernet brand Hundred Acre, for “just for one harvest” in 2004. “In 2005, I joined my brother’s winemaking team and began my education. Under the watchful eye and expert guidance of internationally acclaimed winemaker, Philippe Melka, and with my brother’s encouragement and tutelage, I absorbed the knowledge that was dripping from the walls of that great cellar,” says Founder/Winemaker Cameron Woodbridge.

In 2006, Cameron was ready to start making his own wine, and the renowned Stormy Weather brand was born. “Now headed into my 13th vintage of Stormy Weather, I can still hear my brother’s voice,” says Cameron. “Never, ever, compromise on quality! Never hurry! The fruit will tell you when it’s ready and the wine will too. You need only wait and listen.
