TEETER-TOTTER 2019 CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES:

A great value in Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, the 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon, a rich, plum and blue-fruited Cabernet with medium to full-bodied richness, plenty of classic cedarwood, chocolate, and tobacco aromatics, silky tannins, lots of opulence, and a great finish. It tastes as if it cost two to three times the price, and will be an excellent bottle any time over the coming 10-12 years.

JADA 2018 'JACK OF HEARTS' PASO ROBLES

TASTING NOTES:

The 2018 Jack Of Hearts is straight-up smoking good, offering an incredible sense of opulence and decadence while at the same time staying beautifully balanced and fresh. Blackberries, blueberries, ground herbs, tobacco, and a hint of graphite give way to a medium to full-bodied, balanced wine that brings the hedonism, yet it still has both tannins and acidity. It will deliver the goods for 10-15 years.

WINERY INFO:

Uncompromising - This is the word we keep coming back to in the pursuit of making great wine. It takes hubris and a dash of audacity to discover a great vineyard site and the same goes for making great wine. Jada began as the tread of a Brooklyn kid's dream whose father and uncle made small batches of wine in the basement of their two-family home. That dream crossed a country to be realized, but out of an immigrant child's hope, a daughter's love, and a son's rebirth, Jada became the vineyard and winery it is today.

With over 100 "90/90+" wine ratings for both our Rhone and Bordeaux-style wines, 20 years later, Jada is now counted as one of the top winegrowers and producers on the Central Coast. It's now no longer just a small family from the East Coast with a dream, but a cadre of talented winemakers, employees, and a phenomenal farming team who have sought to gain the respect of the world over with our estate wines. Don't take our word for it, though. Take the word of the wine media and then come taste the Jada wines for yourself. It's that simple.
